

Douglas M. Wolfberg
Partner
dwolfberg@pwwemslaw.com

Doug Wolfberg is a founding partner of Page, Wolfberg & Wirth, LLC, along with Steve Wirth and the late James O. Page. The firm represents private, public and non-profit EMS organizations, as well as billing companies, software manufacturers and others that serve the nation's ambulance industry.

Doug has been involved in EMS for more than 25 years, first as an EMS provider and instructor, then as an EMS administrator, serving at the county, regional, statewide and Federal levels, including the United States Department of Health and Human Services. He is one of the most popular and highly-rated speakers at EMS conferences and seminars throughout the United States.

Doug's primary areas of practice focus entirely on EMS and ambulance industry issues such as reimbursement and compliance, business transactions and contracts, nonprofit and tax-exempt organization issues, litigation, business counseling and consulting, workplace and employment law, and other areas of the firm's practice.

Doug is a long-time member of the Journal of Emergency Medical Services Editorial Board and is a regular columnist in The EMS Insider and JEMS. Doug is also the co-author of some of the industry's leading publications, including The Ambulance Service Guide to HIPAA Compliance, now in its third edition, and a contributing author to some of the industry's best-known textbooks. He is also a former Commissioner of the Commission on Accreditation of Ambulance Services (CAAS).

Doug is a graduate of Penn State University and Widener University School of Law, where he received his law degree with high honors, graduating magna cum laude. He holds academic appointments as faculty at the Widener University School of Law; George Washington University, School of Medicine and Health Sciences; and the University of Pittsburgh. Doug is also an avid bicyclist, as well as a musician who plays guitar, bass and drums in his spare time.
